Sarah Graham Knowledge Organiser
WHAT AND HOW YOU WILL LEARN

UNDERSTAND by RECORDING and DEVELOPING your ideas into a final OUTCOME

UNDERSTAND
Learning about art and design
Research and discuss the work of Sarah Graham. Understand the context in which it was made. Getting ideas for your own work.

RECORD Use drawing and photography to record what you see. Observe the formal elements: Shape, line, tone, colour, pattern, form & texture.

DEVELOP
Explore and experiment with different materials and techniques. Make creative changes so artwork becomes more interesting. Develop and refine your practical skills

OUTCOME
You have everything you need to create your final artwork. This final outcome brings together all your learning and skills.

KEY WORDS
Hyper-realistic
Photo realist
Nostalgic
Joyous, uplifting
Still life
Identity
Modern-day icons

.

MEDIA EXPERIMENTS
Pencil
Oil pastel
Colour pencil
Watercolour
Poster paint

COMPOSITION
Arrangement of the formal elements