Fire gymnast

Fire gymnasty was a manipulative and ~~exit~~ evil villain. She had ~~be~~ burnt orange hair, bright blue eyes and skin so fair it can blind people. Unsurprisingly, she wears a blue and orange leotard with black knee high boots – sometimes a plum purple cloak to hide hersely.

The firsty time her powers were formed ~~was~~ were when Kate Edwards (her real name) was lighting matches in her house and dropped them. Her house shot in flames and she melted in the fire and everything turned to ~~ashes~~ ashes. However, even though everything was destroyed Kate was not; Somehow she got reincarnated into an evil villain who wanted revenge. Despite being this fiery and confident character fire gymnast had a weakness. She, strangley enough, hated small spaces as it reminds her of bad memories.

Fire gymnast may seem like a evil however person who wants to cause havoc ~~wherever~~ wherever she goes but she isn't all bad. Surprisingly, whilst she isn't destroying half of the world, Kate Edwards goes in a disguise as a normal girl doing everyday stuff.

Her main superhero power is that with every gymnastic move she does, fire shoots out – hence the name fire gymnast. Other than that she has over 100 gadgets that she uses.
