What does the RGS standard look like in RE?

Year group: 7

Task: What is the significance of Jesus and Muhammad?

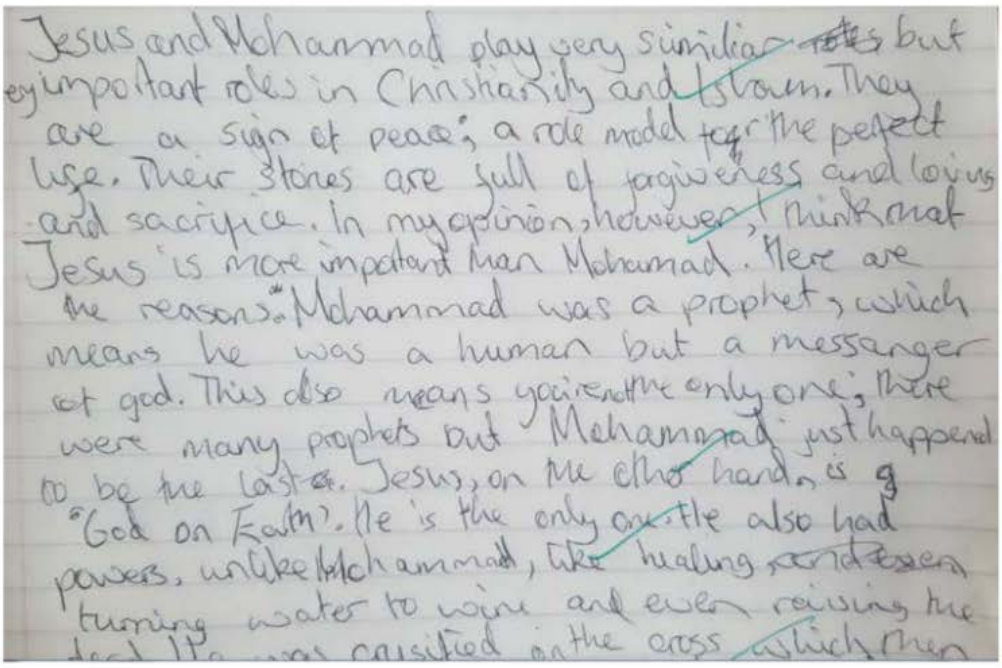
A clear comparison between these key figures

Clearly answers the question

Mentions key teachings – would be better if they used quotes from scripture

Highlights the differences between Islamic beliefs about Muhammad and Christian beliefs about Jesus

Examples from scripture used to highlight the different roles of Jesus and Muhammad



Jesus and Mohammad play very similar ~~roles~~ but very important roles in Christianity and Islam. They are a sign of peace, a role model for the perfect life. Their stories are full of forgiveness and loving and sacrifice. In my opinion, however, I think that Jesus is more important than Mohamad. Here are the reasons. Mohammad was a prophet, which means he was a human but a messenger of god. This also means you're the only one, there were many prophets but Mohammad just happened to be the last one. Jesus, on the other hand, is a "God on Earth". He is the only one. He also had powers, unlike Mohammad, like healing and even turning water to wine and even raising the dead. He was crucified on the cross which then